

Account Executive

The JPG Group has an immediate opening for an account executive. In this role you will build relationships with key agency clients and help them reach their business goals by creating and implementing strategic marketing plans.

What we are looking for:

A successful account executive has a passion for excellence. We are looking for a self-starter, who is a strategic thinker, creative problem solver and a brilliant communicator in person and online.

Specifically we are looking for:

- 3 - 5 years professional advertising, marketing, sales or business experience
- Proven track record of building client relationships
- Excellent project management and organizational skills coupled with the ability to multitask effectively
- Operates effectively in a fast-paced, deadline-driven environment
- Excellent written, verbal and presentation skills
- Proficient in MS office and Mac

Interested?

Send us a brief statement explaining your interest and your resume to jobs@jpgonline.com

Please note: While we would like to respond to every candidate, we can only respond to those who match the criteria listed.

Thank you for your interest in working at JPG.

Think marketing. Think results. Think JPG.
www.jpgonline.com